

International conference

Violence against pregnant women

Monday 28 August 2017, 8 am-4 pm

KS Agenda, Haakon VII's gt 9, 0161 Oslo

Mirjam Lukasse

Hafrun Finnbogadóttir

Kristin Haaland

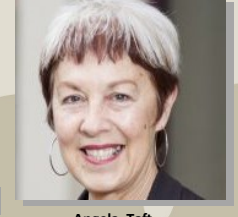

Lena Henriksen

Dubravka Šimonović

Claudia Garcia-Moreno

Angela Taft

The aim of the conference is to close knowledge gaps and promote cooperation in the field of violence against pregnant women. The conference is for midwives, health service professionals, staff at women's shelters, researchers, police and anyone with an interest in the topic.

Program

- 08.00-08.30 Registration and coffee
- 08.30-08.45 Welcome by Professor Mirjam Lukasse, Oslo & Akershus University College
- 08.45-09.30 Violence against pregnant women. Dr. Claudia Garcia-Moreno, WHO
- 09.30-10.15 Challenges and Status. Dubravka Šimonović, Special Rapporteur on violence against women, UN
- 10.15-10.35 Coffee break
- 10.35-11.20 Interventions regarding violence against pregnant women—What works? Professor Angela Taft, La Trobe University, Australia
- 11.20-11.50 The Norwegian setting. Midwife and PhD Lena Henriksen, Oslo & Akershus University College
- 11.50-12.25 Violence and immigrant women. Midwife and PhD Ulrika Byrskog, Dalarna University, Sweden
- 12.25-13.25 Lunch
- 13.25-13.55 Does the violence continue after the baby is born? Midwife and PhD Hafrun Finnbogadóttir
- 13.55-14.25 SARA (Spousal Assault Risk Assessment Guide). Norwegian Police Service
- 14.15-14.40 Coffee break
- 14.40-15.55 What can we do to uncover violence and help women when violence is uncovered?
Moss Women's shelter. CEO Grete Mørch
The web site dinutvei.no Pediatric specialist Geir Borgen, NKVTS
"Tidlig inn". Midwife and PhD Kristin Haaland,
- 15.55-16.00 Closing remarks by Professor Mirjam Lukasse, Oslo & Akershus University College